

JOURNAL OF SIKH AND PUNJAB STUDIES

Volume 28, Number 1 – Spring 2021

CONTENTS

Articles

Kavita Bhanot	Problematizing Punjabiya : A Case of Brahmanical Patriarchy	1
Abhijit Dhillon	Gender and Drug Use in Punjab: A Study of Female Drug Users at Navkiran De-Addiction Centre, Kapurthala	21
Sumandeep Kaur	The 'Drug Menace' in Punjab: Causes, Consequences and Policy Challenges	41
Jiwant Kaur	Orientalist Historiography of the Sikhs and beginnings of Sikh Studies in Punjab	53
Sukhdeep Kaur	Diversity, Pluralist Practices and Religious Identities in 19 th Century Punjab	67
Rajwinder Kaur	The 'Punjab Problem' of 1984-1995 and its Depiction in Contemporary Punjabi Literature	87
Ramindar Singh	Institution and Community Building among Sikhs in Britain: Some Critical Reflections	103
Sarika Khurana	'The Ones That Could Not Get Away': Immobility of Aspiring Emigrants, its Causes, Impact and Solutions	133
Book Reviews	List of Books	151
Contents
Books Reviewed	Reviews	153
In Remembrance	Surjit Hans, Paul Wallace, Roger Ballard, V. N. Datta and Nadir Ali	171